

Deanna Peterson, CPA

SUMMARY

Deanna is a driven and dedicated professional accountant with both non-profit and Big 4 accounting firm experience. Her expertise includes streamlining processes and procedures, preparing for a seamless audit, and collaborating with executives and board members to provide timely and accurate information that facilitates executive decisions. Deanna's unique background offers a rich blend of accounting, taxation, budgeting, strategic planning, reporting, and non-profit industry expertise.

Deanna is passionate about providing accounting services for a bigger purpose. She enjoys using her accounting expertise to assist non-profits further their mission, help their communities, and make the world a better place.

EDUCATION

University of Washington
Master of Professional Accounting
Bachelor of Arts, Accounting