

Laurie Taylor

Laurie has worked with Ernst & Young for over 30 years and specializes in providing financial, accounting and transactional services to clients in the healthcare and not-for-profit industries. Laurie's experience ranges from large healthcare systems, academic medical centers, physician groups, insurance plans, not-for-profit foundations, and clinical research and development organizations spanning throughout the western and southwest regions.

Laurie attended Arizona State University and graduated with a degree in accounting. Laurie is a Certified Public Accountant and is active in community organizations that enhance the lives and provide opportunities to woman and children. Laurie is an advocate of creating opportunities for both woman and children to thrive and is honored to be part of the Arizona Foundation for Woman.

Laurie enjoys traveling and experiencing new cultures, entertaining, spending quality time with her nieces and several godchildren, biking and taking her dogs to the park.
