

Monica Lindstrom

Monica has had a diverse and successful legal career, which has led her to focus her practice on mediation. She has made the shift from zealously advocating for her clients to compassionately helping others resolve their disputes.

Since being admitted to the Arizona Bar in 1998 she has been a prosecutor, criminal defense attorney and civil litigator practicing in the areas of criminal, bankruptcy, administrative law, educational law, complex civil litigation, insurance, real estate, landlord tenant, employment, discrimination, contract, and family law.

During her career she has been, and continues to be, a judge pro tem with the Maricopa County Superior Court, an adjunct professor, legal commentator/analyst and radio host. Monica teaches mediation and alternative dispute resolution as an adjunct professor at Arizona Summit Law School.

Monica is involved in both her legal and civic communities. She is Past-President and current Board Member of the Scottsdale Bar Association, current member of her church's Board of Trustees, past member of the Thurgood Marshall Inn of Court, and past member of the City of Scottsdale Board of Adjustments. She volunteers and helps with numerous other groups that usually focus on children.

She currently co-hosts The Agenda and is KTAR News' and Arizona Sports' legal expert. You can find her #LegallySpeaking blog containing informative posts and videos on KTAR.com.

Monica received her Juris Doctorate from California Western School of Law and her Bachelor of Science from Northern Arizona University. Go Jacks! She is licensed to practice in Arizona and California, in both the state and federal courts. Monica is a member of the: Arizona State Bar, California State Bar, Scottsdale Bar Association, Maricopa County Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. You can follow her on Twitter @MonicaLindstrom, Facebook and Google+.
