

Marilyn Seymann bio sheet

With C-Suite leadership experience in business, education, philanthropy and governance, Marilyn Seymann, Ph.D. is respected nationally for her insightful guidance of both private and public institutions.

Dr. Seymann is Chief Executive Officer of Caring Capital, LLC, a consulting firm specializing in creating innovative solutions for community collaboration, legacy creation and the compassionate use of capital.

Prior to forming Caring Capital, Dr. Seymann was the CEO of the Bruce T. Halle Family Foundation, which emphasizes issues related to social justice and vulnerable populations. She is a member of the board of directors of both State Farm Bank and MAXIMUS, Inc.

In addition to these roles, her achievements include: Director and Vice Chairman of the Federal Housing Finance Board; Executive Vice President of Chase Bank of Arizona; Founding Partner of the Directors' Council; Chief of Staff to (former) Arizona Governor Bruce Babbitt and corporate board roles at True North, Beverly Enterprises, Northwestern Corporation and other public and private companies.

Committed to her community, Dr. Seymann has taken leadership roles in a wide range of non-profit and charitable organizations and has received a multitude of awards for her civic engagement. In 2001, the Arizona Foundation for Women created the eponymous Marilyn R. Seymann Award, with Dr. Seymann its first recipient.

She resides in Phoenix with her husband, Dr. Roger Seymann.

